Agreement to Use the ChiMed and ChiMST Dataset

In this agreement, "we" refers to "BioNLP Research Group in the Department of Linguistics at the University of Washington", "you" refers to users who plan to download the dataset for their own research, and "the dataset" refers to the ChiMed and the ChiMST Dataset.

In order to use this dataset, you agree to the following terms:

1. The copyright of the original data in the dataset is owned by "http://www.39.net/"; the copyright of the annotation is owned by us. We release the dataset in accordance with the agreement that we have with "http://www.39.net/".
2. If you want to share the dataset with anyone outside your research group, you must receive approval from "http://www.39.net/" first.
3. The dataset is for non-commercial research use only.
4. In all your publications that use the dataset, you must clearly indicate that the original data in the dataset comes from http://www.39.net/ and cite the following paper(s):
   (1) Yuanhe Tian, Weicheng Ma, Fei Xia, and Yan Song. 2019. ChiMed: A Chinese medical corpus for question answering. In Proceedings of the 18th BioNLP Workshop and Shared Task in conjunction with ACL-2019, pages 250–260. https://www.aclweb.org/anthology/W19-5027/
   (2) Yuanhe Tian, Han Qin, Fei Xia and Yan Song. 2022. ChiMST: A Chinese Medical Corpus for Word Segmentation and Medical Term Recognition. In LREC 2022, pages 5654-5664. http://www.lrec-conf.org/proceedings/lrec2022/pdf/2022.lrec-1.607.pdf
5. If you add any additional layer of annotations to the dataset (e.g., the extra labels on the QA records), the copyright of the annotation is owned by you. If you want to release this additional annotation, you can release only the additional annotation (e.g., the extra labels of the QA records), WITHOUT including the original data. If you want to release the additional annotation with the original data, please contact us first and we can release it at our website and indicate that the work is done by your team.
